

July in Colorado . . .

Hot . . . dry . . . except for evening showers. . . .

That's how it is in the Pikes Peak region this July. So . . . how about joining us for some Iced Tea?

Two, small private Milford-Haven Socie-Tea parties are coming up. Join me and other readers!

Pool Par-Tea

July 28th . . . 4pm - 6pm

For members of the Country Club of Colorado . . .

If you enjoy water aerobics, you already know the amazing Bari Willson, our unstoppable, dedicated water aerobics teacher.

Bari is also a big reader and---happily for me---not only enjoys my books, but enjoys sharing them! I can't even count how many new readers have found the Milford-Haven Novels thanks to Bari.

So, join me and my delightful co-hostess Bari at the Adult Pool. We'll be serving iced tea and a wonderful cake. (Of course, you're also welcome to order anything else you might enjoy at the Snack Bar).

Wear a FABULOUS HAT if you'd like a chance to win a free copy of my upcoming novel . . .

We'll be bobbing in the pool, or dangling our feet. And I'll be sharing behind-the-scenes stories about my new books, the publishing journey, and maybe the good old days back on "Days Of Our Lives" just for fun.

Connective-Tea

July 31st . . . 2pm - 5pm

As always, my favorite thing is connecting with my readers . . . those who already know my books, and those who don't. Why? Because most of my readers are kindred souls working as hard as I am to keep up with busy lives. We want to do it all . . . and do it well.

One person I greatly admire who DOES do it all and do it well is the lovely Lenore Hotchkiss, a realtor, photographer, entrepreneur, and creativity goddess.

Like me, Lenore loves to connect . . . so we decided a CONNECTIVI-TEA would be just the thing this summer. She is graciously inviting us to her incredible home. E-Mail Lenore to get details. Here's the wording from her invitation:

You're invited to an An Afternoon Tea at the home of Lenore Hotchkiss in Florissant, celebrating award-winning author Mara Purl's compelling Milford-Haven series---her new E-book short story When Hummers Dream and her soon-to-be published novel What the Heart Knows.

Meet the author, view new photography by Lenore and sample tasty morsels during teatime in the peaceful mountain setting of The Rock Farm, a monumented rock formation surrounded by forests and views just west of Divide, Colorado. This is an opportunity to connect with friends and meet interesting new women while enjoying the afternoon in a unique setting.

Optional 5:00 pm walk to the top of the rock formation; casual attire
